

UNIVERSITY
IN THE CITY

PID/CUID:

Dear

It is with great excitement that I offer you admission to the Master of
at the at University for the 2022 Fall term. Your admission corresponds to the

. On behalf of the entire community, I extend our congratulations and wish you every success in the pursuit of your graduate degree here.
This year's applicant pool is of extraordinarily high quality and you can be justifiably proud of your membership in this talented class. Your offer of admission is for full-time study only.

As a member of the , you will join a global network of extraordinarily diverse and accomplished students committed to making a difference in the world. Our curriculum is designed to prepare our students to gain the skills and experiences necessary to achieve their career aspirations.
We are confident that you will contribute to our community and enrich the educational experience of your fellow classmates.

To reserve your seat in the Class of 2024, please respond to this offer of admission by submitting the Enrollment Response Form and the required, nonrefundable tuition deposit of $2,000, no later than Your deposit will be credited toward your tuition when you enroll.

We encourage you to visit our new student Welcome Portal. There, you will learn more about the student experience, find the preparation checklist, access the university housing application, and discover how to meet alumni and students near you. You will also find information on submitting the Authorization form and your official documentation. Official copies of your transcripts and test scores must be submitted before registration begins. The log-in credentials are as follows:

Welcome Portal

Password:

If you have trouble logging in, please type the password rather than copying and pasting.

Looking further ahead, orientation is projected to start on to Should these dates change, we will notify you via email. That's when you will meet the remarkable students and faculty who will become your lifelong network. Please arrange to attend the orientation as your participation is required. Classes begin on